- * Concept Development
- * Pre-Writing

Activity Category:

- * Language/Pre-reading

Activity Contributor:

Carrie Biales, M. Ed.

What To Do:

Set up a post office/dramatic play area for your child. Give your child paper, envelopes, markers, colored pencils, a stapler, stickers (for stamps), etc. Encourage your child to write letters and address envelopes. Squiggles, pretend writing, and inventive spelling are all fine at this age!

Variations:

Let your child observe workers at your local post office.
