| 5 Partially hidea toy behind ablanket or objectand let baby lookfor it.   | 6 Place blocksin a container, oneby one, and thendump them out.Dump and fill! Theywill do this overand over. | 7 Show baby pictures of items in a book or magazine that he can find around the house.   | 8 Imitate your baby's facial expressions and sounds. This is how babies communicate.   | 9 Lay baby on her back and hold a toy above her so she can reach for it.  | 10 Kiss your childon one cheek thenthe other, then theback of the neck,on the legs, feet,etc.                  | 11 Help babyexperiment withsound. | 19 While you are cooking, tell baby what you are making and have baby smell the ingredients.  | 20 Carry baby while looking in the fridge or kitchen cabinets and talk to him about what's inside.                                   | 21 When yourchild is on the floor,crawl around them onyour hands and kneesand talk to them. Thisis also lots of funonce they are mobile. | 22 Experimentwith new sounds andsee if your baby willcopy you (try clickingwith your tongue,smacking your lips,blowing bubbles withsaliva, gurgling etc.) | 23 Make a snowangel with your littleone, dressed in theirsnowsuit, hat andmittens. Tellbaby what you'redoing and how itfeels.  | 25   |   |
| 26 Make a puppetor stuffed animal (oreven a sock) talk orsing to your child.This is especiallyhandy if you arewaiting somewhere.   | 27 Softly play a classical tune as you put baby to sleep. You can borrow CDs from your local library.                                       | 28 Tickle yourchild. Name theirbody parts as youtickle.
